iv. Events

a. Induction

- i. Switched and now scheduled for May 31st at 6 p.m. in the auditorium, seniors this is also class day.
- ii. Mostly old and new e-boards involved in planning but we do need other volunteers, let us know if you are interested, more info after April break

b. Graduation, class day, etc volunteer opportunities to come

c. Officer Elections

- i. Great job so far turning the papers in. Keep it up! Don't be afraid to run, seriously. All papers are available outside of Mr. Pratt's office, you just need a few teacher signatures and stuff
- ii. Nomination papers due by May 7th
- iii. Speeches due May 14th
- iv. Election will be Friday May 18th during D block
 1. Everyone votes, including seniors
 2. Candidates-choose as many positions as you want to run for. If you want to run for all of them, do it! If you want to run for one, do that!
 3. Write one speech, page double spaced. Can talk about why you want the position, what you might do, qualifications, anything.
 4. We will hold elections for president first, votes counted, president is chosen, and that person is crossed off of the rest of the ballots. Then vice president, secretary, treasurer, and reps

5. Questions? See Mr. Pratt or any of the e-board members

v. Other Business/Open Discussion/Advisor Input

- a. Yay pizza party! Great job eating all of the pizzas by the way, proud of you all.
Thank Mr. Lucas if you see him
- b. Pictures! We need pictures!!! Start taking them, or bring them in if you have any.
Juniors-this is a legitimate position we are thinking about appointing next year, keep that in mind. We would love to have a slideshow playing at induction and other events like NSO to show people all of the great things we've done.
- c. If any sophomore/junior asks you about the induction, tell them they should receive a decision either the week of April vacation or the week after. The five member faculty council is reviewing all of the applications, and the majority rules.

Meeting adjourned by Mr. Pratt at 2:31!
